Pray Always

Many parishes have a parish book of prayer or parish book of intercessions where individuals can write a prayer for someone in need, a prayer of thanksgiving, or a prayer of praise. When we gather at Mass, we pray for others and with one another. How can we take this example from church to our homes and pray always? Consider buying a blank book or journal as your family's book of prayer. Each day write a prayer—of thanks, intercession, praise or petition. Let every time you think of a friend, family member or co-worker be a prayer of thanks for that person's place in your life.

"Be diligent in serving the poor. Love the poor, honor them as you would Christ himself." ...St. Louise de Marillac
