During an audit of the cemetery finances, it was discovered that payments on numerous grave sites are either in arrears or no payment has ever been received toward the site. Please make every effort to finalize payment on these sites as soon as possible. If payment is not received in a timely manner, the grave sites will be re-sold. PARTNERED PARISH NEWS

Dear St. Joseph & St. Mary of Czestochowa Parishioners:

I want to thank you so much for your kindness, love, support and friendship over the last 9 years that I have been privileged to serve as your pastor and administrator. A priest's final assignment is always as special as his first, especially when it is in your home parish and local area. I take with me many, many happy memories from the two parish communities—whether sacramental celebrations; visits to the sick, homebound, and dying; working with the youth and school students; involvement in parish events, such as the 125th Anniversary celebrations of both parishes, Polish Platter, The Epiphany Experience, ministries, and all of the other wonderful things which are going on in these parishes. It has been a privilege to pray with you and be able to celebrate my 40th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood, and to be there with you at important times in your lives and those of your families. Thank you for welcoming me and allowing me to be part of your families, a "spiritual father"! I love being a priest and have loved every minute here with you — and for this I am grateful to Almighty God.

I also wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude for all the demonstrations of affection and gratitude which you have shown me in these last few weeks, especially through conversations, notes and cards, gifts and hugs. I truly have been overwhelmed with your love and support. Please know of my love and prayers and please continue to pray for me as I move on to the next phase of my life: Retirement! Together may we always strive to grow closer to Jesus through the arms of our Mother, Mary.

Many parishioners have asked and so below I will share with you my new contact information:

P.O. Box 127, New Stanton, PA 15672

Phone: 724-635-3470

Blessings and prayers,

Fr. John
