PARTNERED PARISH NEWS

St. Mary St. Vincent de Paul Society

The next meeting of the St. Mary St. Vincent de Paul Society will be held on Wednesday, June 19, at 7:00 PM, in the Conference Room. New members are always welcome. If you are interested in joining this group, please contact the parish office.

Please Note!

The regional Mass for Thursday, July 4, will be held at Mount Saint Peter Parish at 9:30 AM, preceded by the “Patriotic Rosary” which will be at 8:45 AM. Come and celebrate the 243rd anniversary of the birth of our nation by asking God’s blessings upon our country and each of its 50 states.

At Mass, we will also recall the 75th anniversary of the dedication of the current church building at Mount Saint Peter, thanking God for the blessing of our faith that we celebrate in this and every church. All are welcome to the Rosary, Mass and reception that will follow.

Congratulations.....

Mrs. Cheryl Kestner, for being named as the PA Affiliate Council for American Private Education (PA CAPE) Elementary Teacher of the Year for Grades K-6. Mrs. Kestner is a science, math, computer science and pre-engineering teacher plus serving as technology coordinator. She averages over 300 hours of voluntary service to MQA as faculty sponsor for several after-school clubs and two science competitions. She is an educator who, in the eyes of the community, models outstanding service to the students and MQA. She is passionate and committed to engaging and developing each student with whom she is entrusted despite several personal obstacles and challenges this past year. This award recognizes efforts of individuals of a school community in achieving meritorious results, while overcoming obstacles along the way. Mrs. Kestner was honored on May 7 with a personalized crystal plaque. Thank you for making MQA proud!

MQA Lady Knights Varsity Volleyball Team who took first place in the Diocese of Greensburg Girls Volleyball Tournament on Saturday, May 18. The girls finished the season undefeated in matches with a 35-1 set record. The team is coached by Jessica Ford, Patrick Mason and Melissa Pallone.

Eighth grade participants are Avery Bain, Gabby Mason and Morgan Phillips. Congratulations to the entire team, their coaches and the MQA Athletic Director, Mike Collett, on a fantastic and exciting season.

MQA’s Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science Team (PJAS) for an outstanding performance at the 85th annual state meeting at Penn State University of May 20. Five students attended the event and all took home first place awards. Two students, Anthony Florian and Morgan Phillips, had perfect score awards. First place award winners are: Anthony Florian (Grade 7) - “Does the price affect the quality of your paint?”; Gabby Mason (Grade 8) - “Which product best prevents the oxidation of apples?”; Matthew Parsi (Grade 8)-“Are paint primers on metal worth your money?”; Morgan Phillips (Grade 8) - “The effect of deionized water and green tea on the growth of rye grass.”; Nina Vigilante (Grade 7) - “The effect of wood mulch on the growth of bush bean plants.” Thank you to Mrs. Cheryl Kestner, team sponsor, and to these impressive students for their hard work and support.

Kyle and Tommy Lecker (Grade 3) and Greta Magnusen (Grade 3) as recipients of the Peacemaker Scholarship for the 2019-2020 school year. Each student was awarded a $250 scholarship, funded by the Festa Family in memory of Mr. Ronald P. Festa, for the upcoming school year. Scholarships are given to students in the third grade who work to keep peace in the classroom and throughout the school day.
